

Piers Inkpen

My name is Piers, and I make drawings. Drawing, making anything, often seems impossible for me. The resources which I draw from aren't quite suitable for creative practice; they contradict creativity, are a sort of crude material. I think that is why I'm a little stuck to my person and why the drawings get stuck to me. They are something I wish to see myself in, though they always end up frustrating that wish.

Another Like Me (2020)

Website // Instagram