

Benji Heinke

My name is Benji and I am a visual artist and musician.

I make paintings based on digital collages, exploring the interaction between the physical and the digital in the 21st century. The work samples imagery ranging from photography and pattern designs to art history and pop culture. The combination of these reference points results in otherworldly scenes, informed by everyday living in the digital age.

Benji Heinke

The House Plant Shop (Eden) (2019 – 2020)

Website // Instagram