

Photowalk

Walks don't have to be boring! Do your daily exercise and get creative with a photowalk.

Equipment: Camera, phone or tablet computer.

After Your Walk

- Look at your photographs. What do you like about them? What would you change if you took the picture again? Do you have a favourite photo?

We would love to see your pictures, email them to vanessa@jhg.art or tag @johnhansardgallery on Instagram

Tick the boxes as you photograph

A plant

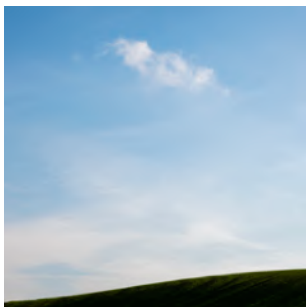

Something red

Something as close to it as possible

A dog or cat

The sky

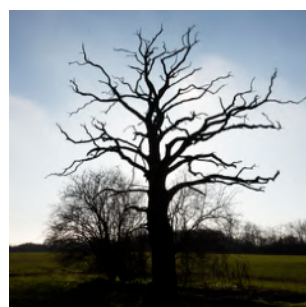

A friend or family member

A bird

Something or someone in the distance, far away

A tree

About the artist Sam Ivin is a photographer and was commissioned by John Hansard Gallery to make new work alongside its exhibition Seaside Photographed. This activity was devised by Sam during his project Weston Shore, where he worked with children and staff from Western Shore Pre School.

More information at www.jhg.art
Artist website www.samivin.com

*starred images by children or parents participating in Weston Shore photography project by Sam Ivin.